FAQ's
Question	Answer
My child is almost 4 and potty trained, can they do the full day camp option?	Unfortunately no and it is out of our control. Due to regulations set by the government of Ontario, full day camps for children under 4 years of age need a child care licence. Therefore, only licensed childcare centres can provide camps longer than three hours for children under the age of four, and we are not a licensed childcare provider as these are dance camps.
Who runs the camps?	For each camp, we have one adult instructor, who is a professional in the industry, and one to two CIT (or Counselor in Training) who are between the ages of 13 and 19, to assist the instructor.
How many children are in each camp?	We are opening each camp to 25 students. We will have a waitlist form that you can fill out if a camp is full in the possibility another camper drops or switches.
Does my child need to have any dance experience?	No dance experience is required! All camp classes are taught at a foundation level and are for all experience levels!
What if my child misses a day?	There are no make-ups for missed camp days or pro-rating available
Does my child need to wear dance clothing? What should they wear?	Permitted wear includes bodysuits, dance shorts, leggings, full/half athletic tops. regular "street" clothing is not acceptable as campers will be participating in dance classes throughout the week and need to be able to move comfortably! They do not need to wear traditional dance clothing, just something comfortable that they can move in!
Can my child leave early/get dropped off late?	You may pick up your child early or drop them off late as long as you notify the studio beforehand. There is no prorated pricing if you choose to drop your child off late or pick them up early.
Can I have someone else pick up my child?	The parent/guardian signing the child out of camp MUST have their name on the child's file in the parent portal. If someone else will be doing the pick up, please let the studio director know by sending an email to info@impactdancecomplex.ca authorising the pickup prior to the start of camp.
